Reminders

Part I of the Science Fair Report is due on January 18th. This portion of the report includes the background research, hypothesis, variables, methods, and procedures. More info is provided in the Science Fair packet.

Remember to keep studying the spelling lists provided for our Class and School Spelling Bee coming up this month.

Multicultural Week is the last week of January. During this week, we will take time to celebrate different cultures, both in and outside of our classroom. Your child will have the opportunity to present on his/her own culture during recitation (more details to come).

Focus on Learning

- Reading: Gulliver's Travels excerpts
- Writing: Opinion/persuasive writing and personal narratives
- Science: Circulatory system (heart, blood, blood vessels, liver function)
- History: Social Reformers and the Middle Ages
- Recitation: Social Reformers presentation and Multicultural Week presentation
- Art: Art of the Middle Ages

Trait: Purpose

This month, we will focus on the character trait of purpose. This trait is perfect for the start of the new year because individuals with a purpose are oriented toward future goals and can explain the reason for those goals. We will be making resolutions for the rest of the school year in class to exhibit the trait of purpose. We will also focus on the "T" in Stratford's HEART for Technology Literate Learners.
